RUTLAND AND VICINITY.

A large number of young men in town are having their heads Modoced.

Mr. H. S. Powers, proprietor of the Grand Central Hotel, New York, with his wife, was in town yesterday and tarried at the Bardwell House, on the way to Saratoga. Mr. P. is a native of Ludlow, Vermont, and had just returned from a trip to his early home.

We regret to learn from the Montpelier Freeman of the serious illness of Col. Franbrother of J. J. R. Randall and Mrs. Col. Randall of Poultney.

One Myron Jennie, a youth of twenty, from Fairhaven, was lodged in the county jail here on Wednesday night on charge of some $50 or $60 in money and decamping with the plunder. He has already been in Windsor serving a term of one year but has since robbed parties at Factory Point and Burlington. The Fairhaven robbery, however, took precedence and on returning there he was put under $500 bonds by Justice Allen and in default was jailed in Rutland as above.

The water commissioners of large towns and cities are issuing orders forbidding the use of aqueduct water for gardens, lawns, carriage washing, etc., on account of scarcity.

The brigade commanders for the Army Reunion here in August are to be Gen. Stephen Thomas of Montpelier, Col John W. Newton of St. Albans, Gen. W. Y. W. Ripley of Rutland, Gen. W. W. Henry of on, and Gen. Thomas O. Seaver of Woodstock.

Money orders are now used to an extraordinary extent in making remittances. The insecurity of the mails for money letters is doubtless the cause of this resort to a more costly mode of remitting. The registered letter should be about as safe as the money, (it is in Canada) and registry should not cost more here than there, namely, two cents.

The postal clerks and route agents are in a terrible fix. In the first place they are not allowed to read the communications on the postal cards, under a penalty of dismissal. Next, they must see that they contain no improper writing, for if so the cards must be destroyed. Now how are the poor fellows to manage? Did our friend Mr. Ireland have anything to do with this or-

The burglars en tered by unlocking the front door by means of false keys and proceeded to a general clearing out of the establishment. They blew open the safe with powder and secured all it contained, including watches, jewelry and other valuables. The report of the explosion of the safe was heard by the watchman at the Howe Scale Works who went to the door and looked about, but seeing and hearing nothing, he concluded it was a pistol shot and went back to his office. The robbers borrowed a mallet and some tools from a marble shop across the river, which were found in the tore. Among the customers watches taken was a very valuable one that was

About 250 delegates were in attendance at the International Young Men's Christian Association Convention to-day. The time of the convention was occupied mostly in discussions upon topics set down in the order of business. That upon how to meet the effects of pernicious literature was full of interest.

Various methods were suggested for the flush newspapers from railway trains, and resolutions bearing upon the subject were sent to the committee on resolutions, to be reported upon hereafter.

To-night a large meeting was again held at the Opera House, and three open air meetings were held in the street.
